MURPHY-MILLS CLOTHING COMPANY.

COUNTY NEWS

MIAMI

The balmy spring like weather of Sunday, Monday and Tuesday caused the people around Miami to get a lively hustle and begin many duties towards cleaning up. Forset McDaniel had some huge maples cut down and removed from his front yard. The hammer and saw were heard to make music on Mr. Bristow's barn which has remained uncompleted on account of cold weather and last but not least your correspondent was just in the act of making some spring rhymes, but after considering this was still Jan. and the river was yet blocked it was decided to hold back the spring jingles until later in the season.

Miss Lena Hawkins, daughter of the late John A. Hawkins will leave Miami this week to make her future home with her brother Giles. Lena was raised in Miami and will be greatly missed by her many friends.

Mrs. Marvin Casebolt who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Austin Brown in Kansas arrived home last Saturday evening.

John Beaven an intelligent old gentleman of Indianapolis, Ind., is in Miami getting points for a history of Saline county which he is writing. Although he has seen the feasts of eighty winters Mr. Beaven's mind is clear and active, he being a fluent speaker and a fine writer. He is boarding at the home of Mrs. Margaret Casebolt.

John Sibley who was called by telegram to the death bed of his aunt in Quincy, Ill., last week returned Friday. Miss Frances Rogers his niece who accompanied him remained for a visit with relatives.
